King Wa TAM

has successfully completed the online, non-credit Specialization

Memoir and Personal Essay: Write About Yourself

This specialization covered core elements of writing memoir and personal essay. With consideration on developing a connection with the reader, finding your voice, defining the character of "you", and more, you refined the skills to identify what makes a good story and how to put that on the page. You analyzed and constructively critiqued peer writing and learned techniques from published and award-winning authors to help you develop your memoir or essay.

The online specialization named in this certificate may draw on material from courses taught on-campus, but the included courses are not equivalent to on-campus courses. Participation in this online specialization does not constitute enrollment at this university. This certificate does not confer a University grade, course credit or degree, and it does not verify the identity of the learner.
